

Healthlink Worldwide consultancy projects 1999 - 2006

2005 - 2006

1. Lepra: Designing and implementing the communication and advocacy component of the Lepra Mayurbhanj Integrated Community Health Project, India. January 2006 – December 2007
2. HIV/AIDS Knowledge Programme (Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine): Researching and writing an evaluation case study on the use and impact of a toolkit on mainstreaming HIV and AIDS. November 2005 – March 2006
3. EQUI-TB Knowledge Programme (Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine): Supporting the design and implementation of the communication and dissemination component of a poverty focused research programme on tuberculosis. International. September 2005 to March 2006
4. Bernard van Leer Foundation: Literature review on childhood development and respect for diversity and producing an online knowledge and information hub signposting key information resources and contacts. International. November 2005 – April 2006.
5. Save the Children UK: Supporting the integration of memory work into the existing SCUUK programmes working with orphans and vulnerable children in Ethiopia. 2005-2006

2004 - 2005

6. National AIDS Council, Cameroon: Writing and producing a summary of a research study on 'Women at the centre of responses to HIV/AIDS: Protecting and promoting rights of women and girls in Cameroon'. September 2005
7. Infodev (Information for Development Programme), World Bank: Research to develop a knowledge map and framework paper on the role and use of information and communication technologies (ICT) in the health sector in developing countries. July – November 2005
8. PATHS Nigeria Partnership for Transforming Health Systems: Synthesising and editing two reports of quantitative and qualitative research on factors influencing immunisation uptake in Nigeria. May 2005
9. Malaria Knowledge Programme MKP (Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine): Supporting the design and implementation of the communication and dissemination component of a multi-disciplinary research programme on malaria in Africa. September 2004 – March 2005
10. Bernard van Leer Foundation: Reviewing and synthesising the literature around the impact of HIV/AIDS on very young children; producing two working papers, a summary Findings paper and an online information hub signposting key information resources and contacts. International. 2004 – 2005.
11. National AIDS Council, Ethiopia: Supporting the development of a national strategic framework on information and knowledge management. Ethiopia. June – August 2005
12. Global Health Watch: providing advice and input into the communication and dissemination strategy and launch of Global Health Watch Report. June – July 2005.
13. Health Unlimited (HU): supporting organisational learning within Health Unlimited, including designing and facilitating a participatory learning workshop to draw out and build on experiences and learning of HU programme staff working in Laos, Cambodia, Guatemala, Nicaragua, Kenya, Rwanda, UK, and China. International. December 2004 and June 2005
14. People's Health Movement: Evaluation of the People's Health Movement. International. November 2004
15. International Community of Women Living with HIV/AIDS: Editing and production of a project report. October 2004 to January 2005
16. DFID and UK AIDS Consortium: Development of HIV/AIDS Taxonomy for DFID Aids Portal www.aidsportal.org. June 2005

17. DFID: review of DFID's Communication and HIV and AIDS guidance note. International October to November 2004
18. Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine: project to strengthen communication of the research and findings from the DFID-funded Malaria Knowledge Programme at LSTM, particularly to donors and policy makers. International. 2005
19. ActionAid: documentation and learning component of the Support to International Partnerships Against AIDS in Africa (SIPAA) programme. Burundi, Cameroon, Ethiopia, Ghana, Kenya, Lesotho, Nigeria, Rwanda, Swaziland, Uganda and Zanzibar 2004
20. World Health Organisation (WHO): Supporting design and delivery of training manual and workshop on promoting rational drug use in the community. 2002 – 2004
21. Malaria Consortium: needs assessment for the development of the Mekong Malaria Documentation Centre. Vietnam 2004

2003

22. DFID: joint management of the Knowledge and Research Programme on disability. International 2003-2005
23. UK Commission for Health Improvement (CHI): Carrying out literature review to support the sharing of learning from patient and public involvement. UK. March 2003
24. Liverpool School of Tropical Medicine: workshop on developing a communication strategy for the learning from the Malaria Knowledge Programme. UK. 2003
25. Share-See and Handicap International: needs assessment for regional disability information system. Balkans August 2003

2002

26. UNICEF Beijing: Workshop on resource centre development. China. 2002
27. DFID: Joint management of the Knowledge and Research Programme on disability and healthcare technology. International. 2002–2003.
28. Family Health International: Needs assessment for development of HIV/AIDS-related knowledge management systems. Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia and Russia. 2002.
29. Diana Fund: Review of Palliative care services in Kenya. 2002.
30. Elton John Foundation: Palliative care project. Kenya. 2002.
31. International Community of Women Living with HIV/AIDS: Preparing the report of the Voices and Choices study in Zimbabwe. 2002.
32. DFID: Disability-related information resources. UK. 2002.
33. GIC: Development of Health Care Technology database (contacts and publications databases). 2002
34. WHO: International Poverty and Health Network. Online project. 2000-2002.

2001

35. Comic Relief: Assessing sexual health needs of socially apart young people. Guatemala, Zambia, Nigeria, Ghana and India. 2001.
36. WHO: Promoting good practice in health information needs assessment and impact evaluation. Switzerland. 2001.

37. Commonwealth Secretariat: Producing the publication Gender and Relationships: A Practical Action Kit for Young People. International. 2001.
38. Global Network of People living with HIV/AIDS: Printing and distributing the second edition of the Positive Development publication. 2001.

2000

39. UNICEF: Producing the publication A Teenagers Toolkit. Africa. 2000.
40. WHO Stop TB Programme: Producing training guides to support a series of Stop TB Programme videos. Asia and Africa. 2000.
41. Commonwealth Regional Health, Secretariat for East, Central and Southern Africa (CRHCS): Development and recommendation for implementation of an Information Communications Technology Policy for CRHCS. Tanzania. 2000.

1999

42. Ministry of Health, Ghana: Health learning materials (HLM) development - HLM programme review and training in writing, editing and field-testing. 1999.
43. WHO: Study of WHO Health Systems Development Tools and Guidelines.